

MOLLY SECOURS

Writer
Filmmaker
Speaker

As a speaker at TEDxNashville 2010, Molly Secours shared an extraordinary story of transformation during a recent battle with cancer. She was extremely courageous, inspiring, eloquent, powerful and insightful...a brilliant, mesmerizing speaker. – Michael Hart, Chair, TEDxNashville Speaker Committee

The Upside of Cancer

Molly Secours cuts to the core of difficult issues without mincing words. With humor, compassion and clarity, Secours shares unique and personal insights gained while battling stage IV cancer and the emotional and spiritual transformation that occurred in the face of physical and fiscal devastation. Secours suggests we are never more authentically alive than when we are in such close proximity to death.

Molly Secours is the finest public speaker I have heard in ages. She has a fine command of language and an engaging presence. Truly a 'rara avis.'"

– H. Jackson Forstman, Dean, Emeritus and Finney Professor, Emeritus The Divinity School Vanderbilt University

Moment of Alchemy

Whether a CEO of a major corporation, a college student or a sanitation worker, Secours suggests we all have one thing in common: a desire for finding purpose in our lives--including our suffering. "Moment Of Alchemy" features an 8 minute video Secours produced which invites audience members to dip beneath the surface of their life challenges and pluck insight, clarity and yes, perhaps even purpose.

For the past 15 years Molly Secours has used her artistic talents to effect social change and public policy regarding inequities in health care, education & criminal justice. She has appeared on numerous local and national radio and television talk shows including CNN's Paul Zahn Now and is a weekly Huffington Post columnist. Secours has earned national recognition for her health care documentary "Faces Of TennCare" and her work has been praised by members of the United States Congress including representatives John Conyers, Jesse Jackson Jr. , Senator Edward Kennedy and House Speaker Nancy Pelosi.

For more Information or to book Molly visit www.mollysecours.com